With but a week to go before Granite City voters give their decision pro or against the city manager proposal, Citizens for Council-Manager have scheduled another in a series of public forum meetings.

It will be at 8 p.m. Tuesday at the American Legion Hall, 24th street and Madison avenue. Referendum on the proposed change-over from mayor-council to the managerial plan of municipal operation will be voted on Monday, Oct. 24.

A University City councilman, Bruce S. Stike, will be the main speaker at the Tuesday pro-manager rally. He is a businessman in the city which for the past three years has operated under the managerial system.

Dr. Leo M. Coleman, Citizens' group secretary, pointed out today that University City is comparable in size with Granite City and that a Councilman Stike would answer questions relative to efficient management under a professionally-trained executive.

Headquarters of the Citizens for Council-Manager is at 1804 Delmar avenue.

the meeting, an alderman, in answering a question, said the city's engineer here receives fees for motor fuel tax projects in addition to the annual $8000 and estimated the fees would be $100,000 a year.

Another question by the Council-Manager group asked, "Are you disgusted and disillusioned by the constant bickering that takes place in your city council?"

The mayor answered it by asking the group — "Have you ever watched the legislature in Springfield or Congress in Washington. To me that's the Democratic way. It's all in the open and in public. Four aldermen under the manager plan could be more closely knit — and remember, the four aldermen all could be from one section of town and you could be left out."

The Mayor's Philosophy

Reading another question, "Would you like to see your city government run by complete dedicated officials instead of politicians seeking personal gain and political power?"

The mayor replied, "What do they mean, an alderman could have power only in his small section of the community at present. I never strive for any political power. My philosophy is to do what is right. To save the taxpayers' money. To keep crime out of the city. I'm responsible to you — not to a political power."

"Do you want the spoils system eliminated from your city government?" was the next question read off by Davis, who said the mayor was "sensitive."

"We have only so many jobs," the mayor said, "and we can't hire an extra man to go to the jail house. Where is any spillover system here?"

The fire and police board asked, police and firemen and the three commissioners, the two chiefs and mine.

"The city hall," I pick my own secretary, and I do that so I know I have the right person for the job."

The final question, "Would you like to have a voice in the election of all the members of your city council?" brought this reply from the mayor:

"I don't think you're entitled to elect other than your own alderman. You have a voice in would take representation away from you. It could be easier on the aldermen, but it's nothing unfair in our present form of government and nothing more democratic."

"I'm responsible for everything in the city, and if the aldermen are doing it wrong, they know what to do."

"No Political Powers"

"Remember, we have no partisan elections in the city and there's no mention of political powers."

"The council appoints the city manager," the mayor continued. "It will be the responsible party, but it will be liable to you. He's an outsider wanting to make a name for himself and to go to a larger town and a better paying position. He'll appoint a professional staff, and anyone can oversee professional personnel."

"Opponents to the mayor-council government say we need a fulltime manager. If they think I'm part-time, they should follow me around. Yesterday my

Police Cite 3 Falls

suffered between 3 and 4 a.m. Oct. 12, the investigation has shown. When Jones was being helped out of Johnny Lewis' tavern, Fourth street and Madison avenue, Madison, toward a car being used by Stamps, he and Hancock fell to his knees, catching himself with one of his hands. A short time later, as Stamps was taking him and Miss Lockhart home, Jones became ill and got out of the car on Route 162. As he was helped back into the vehicle, he fell and hit his head on a toolbox in back of the driver's seat.

Falls From Auto

He left the car a second and third time, the third occasion being on Lake drive. When Stamps reached from the front and opened the back door for him, he fell face forward onto the asphalt roadway, police were told.

Reconstructing the evening, police said Jones was accompanied by Miss Lockhart, and the trio was en route to the home of Stamps, who was unable to awaken Jones. Stamps took her to her home and then drove to the area of a brother's residence on Chocoma Slough road.

Parking the car, Stamps fell asleep and later went into the house, leaving Jones in the back seat. Returning at 10:30 a.m., he found Jones was unconscious and had been bleeding, and summoned the owner of the car, Arlie Anderson of Madison. They drove Jones to St. Elizabeth Hospital, where he was pronounced dead.

Left Alone In Car

The tale toward Mitchell occurred after the time he helped schedule didn't allow me time for a single meal, and I ended up getting sick. It's not an 8 to 5 job. I can't be in the office at regular hours. There are meetings away from the office, and usually there are three or four night meetings a week.

In my 12 years as mayor, I'm proud of what I've done. We've grown in every way over any other city in the area — more population, homes, industries and businesses.

"Of course, we've made mistakes, but they're honest mistakes. If you think the city manager will bring you utopia, then he had better go to the city manager."

"But I say, don't change the present form of government if you don't like the way things are run — change the people who run it."

Hit-Run Crash Results In 60-Day Jail Term

A 60-day sentence to be served in the county jail was handed down this morning by Judge Magistrate Gasparovic for Freeman Thompson, 30, of 2001 Illinois avenue, who pleaded guilty to a reckless driving charge. He also was fined $50 on a charge of leaving the scene of an accident and still faces a charge of operating a truck without a driver's license.

According to police, Thompson, who was arrested yesterday evening at West 23rd street and Dewey avenue was driving an auto east on Roosevelt street and in making a right turn onto Madison avenue crashed into a parked car belonging to Oliver Glinick, 2749 Roosevelt street.

County Democrats To Hear Gov. Williams

Michigan Gov. G. Mennen "Soapy" Williams will address the Northwest Madison County Democratic Club's dinner-rally at 7 p.m. Friday, Oct. 28, at the headquarters of Civic Center, north of Altam. The chief executive is touting the midwest in support of the county Democratic candidate, Sen. Kennedy.

Head of the county Democratic sponsoring the dinner-rally is Walter "Buck" Simmons of Venice. He said he looks for a landslide victory for Kennedy at the event. He and local committeemen have tickets to sell.

He did him to the car driven by Stamps. When Stamps and Miss Lockhart were unable to awaken Jones, Stamps took her to her home and then drove to the area of a brother's residence on Chocoma Slough road.

Parking the car, Stamps fell asleep and later went into the house, leaving Jones in the back seat. Returning at 10:30 a.m., he found Jones was unconscious and had been bleeding, and summoned the owner of the car, Arlie Anderson of Madison. They drove Jones to St. Elizabeth Hospital, where he was pronounced dead.

Miss Lockhart said there was brief talk about use of "dope" during the evening. Police are finding no evidence of any type of dope, and related that members of the group attributed the references to "dragging" by Jones, who they said was trying to impress her.

Some Paint, Others Design Costumes; Hallowe'en Ahead

Flames of a huge bonfire will lick the Hallowe'en skies, there will be costumed parades of spoons and hooligans, and display windows will be alive with "three-dimensional" art work.

These and other Hallowe'en-favored activities are on the Quad-Cities calendar for the night annually set aside for the witches' invasion.

The heralding bonfire will light up Venice high's athletic field and beyond. Separate parades will make their way through the midtown sectors of Venice and Granite City.

The $500 art exhibit will be on view of Granite City stores, shops, banks, service establishments and agency offices.

Many Other Programs

Calculated and purposed to keep hooliganism and vandalism at a minimum, the Hallowe'en fetes and marches will be augmented by other programs in schools and by clubs and church organizations.

The Associated Retailers and Civic Association, Inc., will award a cool $500 in cash in the Hallowe'en poster art contest.

Working in co-operation with Granite City junior and senior high schools, and more particularly with art teachers and instructors, the retailers' group is providing an outlet and show case for young artists.

Al Barnes, association executive director, estimated today that the contest will attract something upwards to 250 entries.

From this field, art teachers will select about 500 art finalists, and a panel of six jurors will select the prize winners and honorable mention recipients next Thursday night.

Members of this art jury are Henry Gabriel, Sylvester A. Dulgeroff, Dan Todoroff, Mrs. Al J. Mueller Jr., Mrs. Claude Cochran and Eugene Alassi.

Following the Thursday night judging, to be held at the Granite City high school, contest posters will be distributed throughout town.

3-Dimensional Art

Barnes said this in this year's entries bulking large will be "three-dimensional" art. Hallowe'en motifs and autumnal themes will be to the fore, and the entries will be on poster board.

Practically anything goes. Barnes said of the contest. "As an added flip of interest, we are joining the art faculty in encouraging three-dimensional work this year. Should result in some highly inventive, imaginative and outstanding art creations."

The Hallowe'en posters will provide a fitting backdrop for the costumed parade of young

1700 Towns Have City Managers Club Told

Of the 1700 American communities — large and small — adopting the city managerial form of government, less than 3% reverted to the former system of municipal operation.

This was told the Noonday Optimists Thursday at the club's luncheon at the Elk's club.

Dr. Leo M. Coleman, secretary of the Citizens for Council-Manager, disclosed the study made of the managerial system, showing that once in operation, few cities returned to the old form.

The Granite City dentist said that in increasing numbers, cities, villages and towns were joining the ranks of those who joined this form of government.

He urged ratification of the Oct. 24 referendum. At that time, Granite City voters will ballot on the proposed change-over from the present system to that of managerial operation.

"For Granite City, it would spell efficiency in municipal governmental operations," Dr. Coleman argued. "The affairs of the community would be under the guidance of a trained executive, named by and responsible to the common council."

The system has lines of parallel with most large industries, he maintained. A professional executive officer, named by the directors, who hold him responsible for efficient and productive operation. This, Coleman, contended, applies to city managerial form of government.

"If our citizens truly want an efficient operation of our city by a professionally trained individual who devotes his entire time to his tasks, vote for the council-manager plan," he emphasized.

Forty members of the service club attended the noon-day session.

Second street and at Granville, then move in colorful array to and up Broadway to the high school. Youngsters will toast their own winners over small "cooking" fires.

Judges will occupy places on the city hall reviewing stand. High school pupils are at work on many fronts to insure the success of the parade, as it enters its 16th year.

Madison's Harris and Dunbar schools have set their Hallowe'en parade for Friday afternoon, Oct. 28, and they'll spill over into the heart of town in costumed high-jinks.

WHO SPONSORED CITY-MANAGER LAW IN ILLINOIS?

Read what Governor Stevenson says about it!

In a statement issued in connection with his approval of the City-Manager Legislation on July 10, 1951, Governor Stevenson said: "Enactment of the City Manager Bill is a major achievement of this session of the Legislature. After thirty-six years of repeated efforts and failures to pass such legislation, the cities of Illinois with the exception of Chicago can now experiment with more efficient local government on home rule basis."

Governor Recommends Bill

"I recommended this bill when the Legislature met last January," the Governor's statement continued. "If there are better methods of managing city governments certainly they should be available to us."

Backed by BOTH Parties

"The individuals, organizations and legislators of BOTH PARTIES who contributed to the passage of this bill after so many years of failure, deserve the commendation of the people of Illinois," the Governor's statement concluded.

MRS. WILLIAM H. OVERTURF, the former Jeannette Fahnstër, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Fahnstër, 2009 Clark avenue, who was married Saturday evening at First Assembly of God Church.

Overturf-Fahnstër Nuptials Performed Saturday Evening

First Assembly of God Church, 24th street and Grand avenue, was decorated with tall baskets of white gladioli and yellow pom poms, together with emerald arrangements for the wedding at 8 o'clock Saturday evening of Miss Jeannette Fahnstër, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman H. Fahnstër, 2009 Clark avenue, and William H. Overturf Jr. whose parents reside in Foytson, Mo.

The Rev. Paul Evans performed the ceremony before the altar lighted with burning candles in branched candelabra. Candles also illuminated the center aisle through which the wedding procession passed. The bride escorted by her father.

A full-length gown of silk organza over taffeta was styled with a boat neck outlined with lace, three-quarter length sleeves and a full skirt extended with a hoop. A large bow accented the waist line in the back. It was trimmed with appliques of lace and lace also adorned the skirt which ended in a short train. A fingertip veil of tulle was caught to a crown of pearls and the bride carried a cascade of white snowflake pom poms centered with a single white orchid.

Three attendants preceded the bride and her father. They were Miss Phyllis Stout, maid of honor, Mrs. Joy Edwards, bridesmaid, and Rebecca Fahnstër, the bride's sister, junior maid. # Oilers Defeat Granite City in Final Minute Of Play Friday, 6-0; Lane Scores Only TD

The bugler at the south end of the field softly played " taps " as the American flag was hoisted down at the conclusion of the third quarter Friday night on the Wood River high school football field.

It was a bit premature but quite appropriate, since a few minutes later Granite City was "told to rest" in the cellar of the Southwestern football conference by a fired-up Oiler crew, 6-0.

Wood River fans had just about resigned themselves to a scoreless tie in the annual homecoming game after the two prep squads had struggled ineptly with one another for the better part of four periods.

Neither team was able to take advantage of numerous opportunities thrown its way until the closing minutes, when a bad snap from center sailed over the head of the Warrior kicking specialist, Rufus Valencia, on a fourth down and nine situation.

Blocked punt decides Valencia picked up the ball and avoided at least three potential Oiler tacklers. He tried to get the punt off on the run but it was blocked and Wood River took over on the Granite City 14.

Two plays and a first down later, Wood River Quarterback Gary Lane rolled out to the left on the option play, found just enough running room, headed for the center of the end zone and literally hurdled two Granite City defenders at the goal line, the only score of the evening.

Girl, 8, Hit By Car

Madison police charged an East St. Louis motorist with reckless driving at 5:15 p.m. Friday after his car hit a three-year-old girl he said darted in front of his vehicle on Greenwood street. Charged was James Woodlief, 42, East St. Louis, who is employed in Madison.

Woodlief told police that he was driving south on Greenwood in lieu of his driver's license in Friday afternoon.

Bicycle, Auto Collide

A 15-year-old boy, Charles Gerald Warmack, suffered slight injuries at 6:35 p.m. Thursday when his bicycle collided with the right rear of a southbound auto making a left turn off Madison avenue onto Second street.

A resident of 204 Madison avenue, Madison, he was taken by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Hospital for treatment of bruises to the left leg. He was released after x-rays showed no fractures.

The right rear tire of the car was flattened by the collision. The driver was Leo M. Devany, 909 Main street, Wood.

Minor Injuries

Minor injuries were suffered yesterday by Betty Jean Madison, 20, of 2228 State street, in a two-car collision at 22nd street and Edison avenue. Police said she was a passenger in a car driven north on Edison avenue by Glendon R. Mathis, 25, also of 2228 State street.

The other auto was being driven east on 22nd street by Frieda Wood, 35, of 2438 Dewey avenue, who was charged with failure to yield right-of-way. She posted her driver's license as bond to appear for a hearing Wednesday.

Decatur Couple Hurt

A Decatur couple, John A. Smith, 50, and Nettella Dobbs, 40, suffered serious injuries Friday night when Smith's auto went out of control and struck a culvert at the side of U. S. By-Pass 66, near Sunset Hill.

They were given emergency treatment at St. Elizabeth Hospital here, and the woman was transferred that night to Barnes Hospital, St. Louis, to be given further treatment for severe cuts to the face, an injury to her left leg and abrasions to her face and head. Smith was transferred this morning to a Decatur hospital. He suffered cuts to the face and multiple abrasions to his left shoulder, arm and knee.

3-Way Broadway Crash

Charles Eberhardt, 528 Washington avenue, suffered a cut on the head at 5:15 p.m. Sunday in a three-way collision on Broadway a short distance north of Market street. Venice police were informed.

Another motorist, Patrick A. Sweeney, 4317 Walter avenue, was charged with careless driving, being released on bond. A used car parked on Guy Prevett's lot at 1433 Market was damaged.

Oilers Stopped

Wood River got nowhere in three plays directed at the center of the Granite City line. Lane then found Ed Dennis Heck open on the one, but a booming tackle by Defensive Halfback Jerry Wallace stopped the ballcarrier on the one-foot line and the Warriors took over on downs. That was the deepest either team was able to penetrate until the touchdown play in the last minute.

Noblen directed the Warriors well in the game's first series of plays—until he tried to pass. His first toss was intercepted, setting a pattern followed by one opposing club all evening.

Just when one or the other seemed to have a sustained drive underway, a fumble or stray pass would be picked off by the opposition. Lane, a fine all-around player, had three of 13 aerials intercepted, and the Oilers fumbled away the ball three times, all in key situations.

Noblen threw six times, but Wood River backs were successful in intercepting half of the pass attempts by the Warrior sophomore quarterback, and the Oilers drove to the Granite City five, with Lane completing one pass and bootlegging for 17 of those 30 yards.

Girl, 8, Hit By Car

Madison police charged an East St. Louis motorist with reckless driving at 5:15 p.m. Friday after his car hit a three-year-old girl he said darted in front of his vehicle on Greenwood street. Charged was James Woodlief, 42, East St. Louis, who is employed in Madison.

Struck and thrown to the pavement was Kimberly Serrano, daughter of Mrs. Dorothy Serrano, 831 Greenwood street.

The girl was taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital and treated for facial lacerations, a left ear abrasion and bump on the right of her forehead. Given an x-ray examination, she was released.

Woodlief told police that he was driving south on Greenwood in lieu of his driver's license in Friday afternoon.

Lichtler, co-chairman business division, James Macdonald, industry division chairman; Walter Klostermeier and Milton M. Morris, co-chairmen of government division; Paul L. Lichtenberger, professional division campaign chairman.

Sullivan told the kickoff gathering he knew that the capitalists and the workers would do a successful job this fall, in fact, he predicted, out-distance last year's efforts.

General Chairman Hamilton noted the "competition" of the presidential aspirants' debate and the world series windup, and said the attendant excitement might have held attendance down.

Salesmanship Stressed

Col Jeffrey said UF fund solicitors face the problems of salesmanship.

"You have a good product to sell, but you must analyze your customers," he maintained. "The prospective 'customer' is the most generous individual in the world, if approached properly."

To reiterate, people if approached properly are generous, and it is the responsibility of the volunteer to realize this. The worker is embarked on a noble mission.

"The customer," he stressed, must not be made to feel that he is obliged or "forced" to give. He must be given the opportunity to give.

"In giving to the fund, the contributor is in effect buying communism. It is an investment in the community."

The officer said he would prefer that all give something to the fund because "it makes a better person out of the giver."

Col Jeffrey said he wished that a solid, substantial line of the United Fund could be implemented, something less than the abstract picture many have of the campaign and its purposes.

As a finale, Solenberger showed a color, semi-documentary film, "Yours Is the Verdict."

Michigan State will play three football games in the State of Indiana this season—at Indiana, Purdue and Notre Dame.

Eagles, Blue Lions, Giants Win Saturday

Rain washed out the Junior division segment of Saturday's Granite City park district football schedule, but three afternoon games in the younger Midget division were played.

The Eagles No. 2 squad bombed its counterpart, Eagles No. 1, by a 26-0, caught as Gary Simpson scored twice touchdowns while the Blue Lions squeaked past the Little Rams 2-0, the margin of victory.

The Giants pinned a 26-0 loss on winless Maryland Mart in Saturday's only other contest. The rained-out Junior league games will be made up on Saturday, Nov. 12.

Nelson Fox played in his 726th consecutive game at second base June 18. He last missed a game on August 5, 1955. The old record was 477 games in a row by Eddie Collins.

Larry Ferguson Scores Again For Hawkeyes

Madison's Larry Ferguson maintained his one-touchdown-per-game average in the Big Ten this fall when he scored the first touchdown of the afternoon for Iowa Saturday in the Hawkeyes' 28-21 win over Wisconsin.

Ferguson scored on 21 yards out on a straight dive play after the Badgers had taken a 7-0 lead in the first quarter. Late in the final period, he snagged a pass in the Wisconsin end zone which was apparently a touchdown but was called back and resulted in a penalty against Iowa.

The touchdown was Ferguson's fourth in as many games this year. Iowa's victory moved the Hawkeyes into first place in the Big Ten with a 3-0 record.

OPPOSES HAVING CLASSES OPERATE IN SHIFTS

Editor
The Forum
Granite City Press-Record
Sir:

There have been articles written on the subject of shift classes in our schools to overcome the increasing shortage of classrooms and teachers.

This is a wonderful idea, if everyone concerned wants to be penny wise and pound foolish.

Let's deprive children of summer activities, baseball fishing picnics and plenty of fresh air and sunshine needed for healthy mind, body and spirit.

Let's, by having shift classes stop this nonsense of families vacationing together enjoying the wonderful country of ours. Let's stop dad and junior from camping trips filled with such nonsense as fishing, talking and growing closer together.

Let junior and Sally have their vacations in December, January and February (if they both have them at the same time). They can sit in the house and watch it sleet and snow. Or they can sit in the nice damp snow, get wet and spend the rest of their wonderful vacation in bed or worse.

Dad can call off work a week or two and take the family through the sleet and snow on dangerous highways to ... another highway accident. If he loses his job, well then too bad. After all he's saving on his taxes.

The teachers ... Do they deserve any consideration? They don't do much except lay the foundation of our children's future. So less just keep their eyes shut and control the most important person connected with our children's education. Let's not give her the respect she's entitled too. Respect that can be shown by a increase in pay, as well as increase in manners when we consult her. If junior doesn't learn it must be her fault. After all we send him to school each day and isn't that enough? Active in school affairs mother ... the TV programs. Maybe its card club nite. What about you to do ... isn't junior your son too?

Teachers don't have families to support ... do they? They don't need vacations ... do they? Yes, then we have more teachers. Wonder if we can find any more people to devote their life to our children ... for practically nothing.

Or shall we be sensible and build more schools, add more classrooms and raise the teachers pay to where it can attract more people with the ability and desire to teach.

Can junior study arithmetic for long time by playing baseball. Can Sally study when the rest of the family is on a picnic or trip to the beach. Do not put this pressure on our children for the sake of a few pennies or dollars. Let's build adequate schools now, or chances are we will be building more mental institutions in the future.

Taxes are a headache as would be to me also, but which would be the greater gift for my children, a good education now which would enable them to obtain a good job, or a few dollars I may manage to leave them which would be little help in the future. Give your children the education and they can make their own future and fortunes. If we have hopes for a better tomorrow then let's depend on our children today.

Other parents interested in their children's welfare should speak up, before we find this shift program upon us. Speak up to those who deal with this problem will know how we, the parents feel about it.

P.S. How many children do you (the Editor) have in school now.

Respectfully
GEORGIA WOODFORD
Granite City

(Editor's Note: The Press-Record has never advocated classroom shifts, but has urged a thorough study of the feasibility of year-round school operation with children going the same nine months length of time as now.)

RUSSIA NEEDS INTERNAL AWAKENING, READER SAYS

Dear Editor:
We Must Declare Captive Nations Inside Russia Must Be Freed.

The American ideology is plainly spelled out in our great Declaration of Independence. The Captive Nations Week Resolution, proposed by Congress, must become a vital and integral part of our cold war and propaganda warfare offensive.

Too long have we licked our wounds in the bitter verbal and global warfare against Red aggression. Now we must seize our opportunity to fight back!

Khrushchev fears more than anything in the world is a awakening in his own country. Why did Mr. Butcher of Budapest react with such verbal violence against this resolution? Our government spoke often in the past about the few captive nations in Central Europe — the so called satellites.

Readers are invited to contribute to this column. Name and address must accompany each communication but identity of contributor will not be revealed unless requested. Letters should be 250 words or less.

—and, yet, no such reaction was produced.

The answer lies in the fact that there is a serious colonial problem within the Soviet Union which Moscow calls, "Bourgeois Nationalism" and this is dragged out into the spotlight of world attention and opinion.

The proper characterization of Russian Moscow as the last major and imperialist power in the world would be devastating to its propaganda and cold war efforts. Khrushchev well understood this and reacted against the Resolution months after we remained puzzled and bewildered, and muffed our opportunity.

Dear Neighbors:

We live in days of decision. These decisions will affect our very living. We cannot stand on the fence. We must make a choice. Beulah and I have been very much concerned about the Resolution months after we remained puzzled and bewildered, and muffed our opportunity.

We have listened to the candidates over TV. We have heard their debates. We have seen the various posters and read the numerous brochures. We have brought forth the best in each candidate. We are asked to make decisions. This is one of the most sacred privileges that we have to exercise. When we vote, we make decisions. We make a choice. Beulah and I have been very much concerned about the Resolution months after we remained puzzled and bewildered, and muffed our opportunity.

United Fund Drive For $285,461 Merits Generous Support By All

A family where tragedy has struck, a child in need of counsel, a youngster in search of wholesome activities, an ill person who could be aided by more adequate medical equipment — such individuals tell the story of the United Fund far better than any statistical explanation of UF agencies and their budget allocations in the 1960 fund campaign.

In any community, even when most people endeavor to plan ahead to meet their future needs, there are bound to be many persons caught up in a series of events or circumstances and suddenly faced with a problem that can best be met by such groups as the United Fund agencies. There are many others who are not facing a crisis and yet can gain fuller lives and find the path to maturity far smoother as a result of UF recreational, educational and social programs.

No one wants to be bothered constantly with requests for financial aid, no matter how worthy the cause. But everyone, deep inside, wants to do his part. He wants to aid his fellow human beings and to maintain the services and activities that he knows do much to make the Quad-Cities a good community in which to live.

The United Fund is the mechanism by which aid can and should be given. The goal of $285,461 is realistic, for money that can be obtained, unless 18 agencies are involved, no more token gift will suffice; the contribution or pledge is made only once a year and should be large enough that all of the agencies can continue in operation.

Health, welfare and character-building programs of vital importance are at stake. The United Fund drive has begun. The time for giving has arrived.

It may not seem possible, but there is no time for delay. Quad-Cityans have only 58 shopping days before Christmas.

Welfare Bond Issue Approval Would Aid In Treating Mentally Ill and Retarded

In the maze of election proposals facing Quad-Cityans this fall, they should not forget the acute need for expansion and improvement of Illinois public welfare institutions. A $150,000,000 bond issue to be voted on Nov. 8 includes over $8,000,000 for construction at the Alton State Hospital as well as funds for other mental hospitals throughout the state.

While there is some disagreement over the ideal procedure for raising the needed funds, Arnold H. Marmon, chairman of the citizens' group backing the proposal, points out that the governor, a vast majority of Illinois legislators and many experts regard the bond issue as the best method of financing the capital improvement.

Construction work at the hospitals could eventually cost taxpayers more than twice as much if the bond issue fails. Marmon has noted, pointing out that building costs have risen over 5% annually during the past two decades and are still rising. The bond issue will make it possible for us to build new hospitals and to improve the present ones on a 25-year period. Not only does it permit us to pay as we benefit from use, but it can help effect substantial savings as we lessen the threat of rises in construction costs.

Other cost factors are cited by the citizens' chairman: "Maintenance and repair costs are rising rapidly in ratio to the age of the buildings, some of which are over 100 years old. The cost of personnel just to hold the threats of fire and epidemics at bay are multiplying rapidly, and the inadequate conditions aggravate the mental illness of some patients and delay recovery rates. Hospital stays are lengthened, placing additional burdens on the taxpayers."

It is also well to note that it costs more than $1000 a year to feed, clothe and house a child committed to state care. If he receives inadequate treatment due to lack of facilities, he may needlessly remain in the institution all his life. Aside from this potential $70,000 saving, the value of substituting a useful life for a meaningless lifetime of institutional care is immeasurable. Marmon sees a saving to the state "more than offsetting the cost of an expanded initial treatment and training program."

Some of the problems cited no doubt could be remedied by boosting the budget for operating costs, making possible larger and more qualified staffs. Fourth in the nation in the number of mentally ill hospital patients, Illinois is 31st in the per capita cost of their care and treatment and 39th in money allocated for care of the mentally retarded.

But conditions and overcrowding are such that a building program seems justified and worthy of a "yes" vote on the $150,000,000 proposal next month. As Marmon says, "The state cannot afford to wait or to decide on any vague financing plan that guarantees nothing and might cost more. It is more than an investment in building that we must consider; it is an investment in human beings and human values."

No Weak Points In Present Quad-City Purchasing Trends

The question of "How prosperous is this community or nation?" is something like "How high is up?" There are so many indicators, some conflicting, that it is difficult to say with certainty. This is true in the Quad-Cities, where statistical comparisons of purchasing fail to take into consideration the population growth. However, it seems evident that July 1959-June 1960 was a reasonably good period for buying rose to a record annual level of $61,493,435.

The local purchasing dollar was well divided, with 31 cents of each dollar going for food, 18 for buying reported by wholesalers and manufacturers, 12 for automotive, 10 to drinking and eating places, seven for general merchandise, six to gasoline service stations, four for lumber, building and hardware supplies, four for apparel, three for furniture, radios and household goods and five cents for miscellaneous products and services.

Compared to both 1956-57 and 1957-58, the past year's buying represented a major increase in all categories except hardware and manufactures' purchasing, which showed slight decreases.

The contrast between 1958-59 and 1959-60 is even more marked, with all ten divisions recording substantial gains. This is perhaps the most significant aspect of the report other than the all-time high total; there are no "weak spots" in the present Quad-City buying trends.

Paying sincere compliments is one way to insure quick popularity.

Unless the $195,000,000 Universities Bond Issue is passed...this can happen here in Illinois!

Without money needed to expand classroom buildings...

Our Six State-Supported Universities...already filled to capacity...will not be able to accommodate the tremendous numbers of Illinois youth who will be clamoring for admittance to college during the Decade of the '60s:

...youth who are now studying in crowded classrooms in Illinois grade schools, in Illinois Junior High Schools and in Illinois High Schools.

...youth who will swell enrollments in our State-Supported Universities from 50,000 up to 100,000 in the next ten years.

If the Universities Bond Issue is passed, and money appropriated in the 1961 State Legislature...the first classroom would not be completed until 1963...and the majority of the facilities could not be completed until 1965...

A 14-day disaster supply

What foods would be best for a two-week stay in a fallout shelter after nuclear attack? What would they cost? How much storage space and weight would they involve?

To find the answers to these questions, food specialists of the Office of Civil and Defense Mobilization asked a Battle Creek, Mich., housewife, Mrs. Norman C. Madson, to shop at a supermarket using guidelines which they furnished her.

She was told to shop for a two-week supply for two persons, allowing for personal preferences, but keeping her selection roughly within recommended nutritional amounts for each type food.

A $20 ceiling was put on her purchases.

Other instructions were to select foods which could be eaten either hot or cold, that were the least odorous or third-producing, and that came in cans small enough so that leftovers could be avoided.

Mrs. Madson chose the foods shown in the table. When they were later weighed and measured, it was found that the 115 pounds of food could be stored in a space 21 inches wide, 13 1/2 inches high, and 24 inches from front to back.

Enjoyable Meal with Lamb

Now is the time to take advantage of the good supplies of lamb coming to market. An excellent choice for enjoyable meals, lamb is all meat is important in the diet. You can depend on it for high quality, body building protein, for iron, needed for rich, red blood, phosphorus for bone and teeth and the B vitamins essential to growth and health.

Lamb Chops—Elegant Fare

While lamb chops are regarded as elegant fare this delicacy need not be extravagant. The many different cuts offer considerable latitude price-wise and use-wise. Take your choice of arm, blade and the rolled saratoga chops cut from the shoulder section of the lamb carcass. These are usually the more thrifty. Loin, English and kidney chops are cut from the loin section; sirloin chops from the sirloin portion of the top of the leg. Rib and frenched chops are from the rack.

Looking for Something Extra Special

For that extra special occasion, we suggest butterfly loin chops. Cut single or double in thickness, these are real taste tempters when topped with a mixture of mint jelly and lime juice during the broiling period. Note recipe below.

Minted Butterfly Loin Chops

4 butterfly loin lamb chops, about 3/4 inch thick.
Salt and pepper
1/2 cup mint jelly
1/4 cup lime juice

Sprinkle lamb with salt and pepper. Broil 3-4 inches from source of heat 10 minutes. Combine mint jelly and lime juice. Turn chops and top with mint-lime mixture. Broil about 10 minutes. Makes 4 servings.

Truck Brakes Overheat

Granite City firemen were called at 7:12 p.m. Friday to 2918 State street, where a Federal Grand Chase Co. truck from St. Louis had halted. The brakes had become overheated and locked, causing smoke but no fire. The driver was listed as Dennis Walker.

Stop Sign Arrest

A charge of failure to observe a stop sign at 23rd street and Grand avenue was placed against Lucille Graham, 32, of 1628 Fifth street, Madison, who was issued an arrest ticket Sunday evening by Granite City police. She posted her driver's license as bond.

MORE ABOUT Support Of Bond Issues

to college each year who would otherwise be unable to attend, by means of a scholarship program, and still this is not enough.

The $195 million universities bond issue, if passed, will give us the buildings we need now, and you people should be particularly interested since it is you who will be paying for the program in the future," the governor added.

Support of the public welfare bond issue, another referendum to be submitted to the voters in November, was also urged by Gov. Stratton.

"Many of the buildings that house our mental institutions are 50 years old or older," he said. "This is a situation which must be corrected before it is too late. We need the money to replace them now, and this bond issue will provide it."

Stratton also pointed to the construction of a new highway under his administration. "In Madison county alone more than $30 million in new highway construction has been completed; another $10 million in new roads are currently under construction," he pointed out.

The governor praised Illinois drivers for reducing the number of fatalities on the state's highways. "We had had good cooperation from among drivers, and it has resulted in the reduction of deaths. Ten years ago we were killing 3000 a year; that number has been cut almost in half since."

'Great Period Of Growth'

The Republican candidate said there has been "a great period of growth and improvement in Illinois in the past eight years" and added that Illinois is a state "that's attractive to its residents and visitors."

He concluded: "It is my pleasure to have worked on this record, and I only hope that voters will see fit in November to return me to office."

Polite applause was offered by the young but attentive audience several times during Stratton's remarks, but his announcement that the Pittsburg Pirates had rallied for five runs in the eighth inning to take a 9-7 lead in the final game of the world series brought forth an ovation.

Mayor Davis and Mrs. Stratton remained seated on the VENICE FIREFIGHTERS ACCOMPLISHED a dual purpose Saturday. They removed a minor town eyesore and demonstrated fire control techniques. Here's all that remained of the structure at 220 Broadway after the demonstration.

New Role For Firemen, As House Is Set Ablaze

Venice firefighters started a bang-up fire on Broadway Saturday. On purpose, too.

In a virtuoso display of flame control and firefighting techniques and a public demonstration of new devices and equipment, the volunteer force set a match to a 45-year-old frame "eyesore" at 220 Broadway.

Then they went to work with a will to put it out.

It was all a part of Fire Prevention Week observance and drew a turnout of scores of youngsters and a goodly parcel of adults. It accomplished a civic good, additionally. The building owned by the Home-coming and Memorial Association, a one-time filling station and parking facilities.

Extinguished Three Times A one-time filling station and more recently a residence, the speaker's platform during the governor's remarks, together with Madison county Republican chairman Wilbur Gehring, Waldo E. Schullinger, city engineer vice-president of the Young Republicans Club, served as master of ceremonies.

First off, a rear room of the Broadway building was bathed in kerosene. Then, Chief Lechner set the first torch. After allowing the resultant blaze to gain considerable headway, firemen went into action, and within a short period, had the fire under control.

This procedure was thrice repeated and provided a show particularly appropriate to Fire Prevention Week. In a pre-fire briefing, the chief assigned men to their posts and the volunteers, some 15 strong, learned their stations over a 2½-hour period.

Afterwards, Lechner, a married fireman, reluctant to claim credit for the demonstration, made his force share in the success of the venture. There was a mite of celebration at the station afterwards.

A focal point of much interest was the department's "water curtain." The device sprays an arc-like fountain of water to a height of some 30 feet, and is utilized to form a protective shield so that firefighters can advance close to the hot flames. There were other demonstrations of apparatus and equipment during the razing of the structure.

Yes, Venice firemen set a fire Saturday—and it was all as legal as lemonade.

For a period it appeared rain might fall in quelling the flames. It did not, but atmospheric pressure caused heavy smoke. The firemen truly became "smoke eaters" of tradition.

mayor must stand for election, just like the school board must run for election.

Q. City officials have warned that a manager might have a conflict of interest. Would the council to fire him and pay his salary for the rest of the contract period? Is this correct?

A. No, Illinois law specifically forbids this. It stipulates that a manager can be removed at any time by a majority of the council.

Q. Under the manager system, is the mayor just a figurehead?

A. He does not directly operate city departments and has no veto power. But he is a voting member of the council, is the ceremonial head of the city, presides at council meetings and marshals community support for the council candidates and their programs.

Length Of Stay

Q. Both sides say that the manager is anxious to advance his career and probably would leave before long. Wouldn't this interrupt the continuity of the government?

A. To an extent. Statistics show an average tenure of five years in each city. The average for managers who died in office or retired in recent years was 15 years for all cities served and seven years per city. Some have served in the same city for two decades or more. Nearly 450 have served in two or more cities, and some in as many as nine. Again, there is a parallel with the position of school superintendent.

Q. Does the city manager participate in local politics? How is he selected?

A. A city manager is expected to stay out of politics. He neither supports nor opposes candidates for the council in elections, keeps the council advised of the city's financial condition and future needs; prepares and submits the annual budget to the council; prepares and submits to the council all necessary reports; keeps the public informed through reports to the council, regarding operations of the city.

Q. As the city's legislative body, the council determines policy, approves the budget, determines the tax rate, appoints and removes the manager and supervises his performance.

A. The manager sees that all laws and ordinances are enforced; appoints and removes department heads and employees on the basis of merit and to exercise control and supervision over all departments, but within the limit of civil service provisions; makes such recommendations to the council as seem desirable; keeps the council advised of the city's financial condition and future needs; prepares and submits the annual budget to the council; prepares and submits to the council all necessary reports; keeps the public informed through reports to the council, regarding operations of the city.

Q. Is this the main reason for the trend toward the manager system?

A. Supporters of the plan say efficiency rises when there is a full-time, trained administrator, and the taxpayers get more for each dollar. Opponents contend that the manager system results in greater costs. The issue of efficiency probably is a major factor for new residents and new industries, and must do the best possible job of providing adequate municipal services without extravagance.

Q. Does the cost-cutting idea result in low pay and loss of jobs for city employees?

Techniques Of Job

A. Extraneous official sometimes make this charge to get city employees to oppose the manager plan, but there seems to be little evidence of this in actually occurring. City managers say they seek to deliver more for each tax dollar through sounder planning, centralized buying, elimination of waste, competitive bidding and other techniques learned while they studied for the manager job.

Q. If there is misrepresentation, how can it be stopped?

A. This is difficult, for distortions usually have a grain of truth in them. For example, it can be said council-manager systems are not in the majority; therefore, there might be some defect that has kept it from being accepted. The truth is that, even though especially small towns have less need for an administrator, the general trend for many years has been heavily in favor of the manager plan, with both of the other systems declining numerically. The best procedure for each individual is to not accept every charge or claim at face value, but to give it serious thought and study.

Cost Of Election

Q. Some city officials say this election is a waste of tax money. Is it?

A. Any election costs money to rent polling places and pay the judges and clerks. But over 10% of the number voting in the last Granite City mayor election want the manager proposal to be put to a vote. Under Illinois law, if this many people sign petitions there is sufficient cause to proceed with an election.

Q. Is there much chance of the proposal winning? There is no large organized group supporting it, and some of the present officials are opposing it.

A. The people are all-powerful if they exercise their right and duty to vote. Until the election, there is no certain way of knowing whether the public wants a change. The majority wish will prevail if the majority votes, but this is not always the case.

Q. There is disagreement over whether city managers are dictators. Who is right?

Public Hearings

A. The simplest way to explain the relationship between the public, the mayor, the council and the manager is to compare it to the well-known relationship between the public, the school board president, the school board and the superintendent. In theory, a superintendent or manager could join forces with a majority of the board or council to run the district or city; but the council and

Lifetime Muffler, Tailpipe On Brewer's '61 Ramblers

The '61 Rambler, which one can "ramble" over to see at the Brewer Motor Co., 2163 Madison avenue, is being sold under a drastically extended automobile warranty program.

A. R. Brewer, of the sales and service agency, said today that beginning with '61 Rambler models all mufflers and tailpipes, which have been among the fastest deteriorating parts, will be guaranteed for the life of the car while in the hands of the original owner.

"The new Ramblers," Brewer pointed out, "will be equipped with ceramic-armor muffler-tailpipe assemblies, which should resist acid, salt and rust indefinitely."

In addition, Brewer emphasized, the American Motors Corp. is extending its 12-month or 12,000-mile warranty on new Ramblers, in effect with dealers since Oct. 1, 1959, to owners of new 1961 Ramblers.

"We, as dealers were advised a year ago that while we could continue formally with the standard industry warrant, the American Motors would stand behind a full-year, 12,000-mile warranty."

"Because of the excellent service record of Ramblers, it has been felt fully justifiable to make possible a more effective warranty program."

Brewer added: "The quality of the car and the infrequency of repair bear out the program of providing Rambler buyers with basic excellent maintenance because of proper design and engineering and top quality of workmanship."

"Independent surveys show Rambler to be the most trouble-free car on the road. Increasing trouble-free Rambler operation is the major objective of American Motors, and of Brewer Motor, alike."

New Diving Class Organizes; Course Begins Sunday

New students and 10 members of the Bubbleblasters Diving club attended an organizational meeting to plan a fall course in scuba diving yesterday at the YMCA.

Carl Krohn, club training officer, was in charge of the meeting. Underwater films on skin and scuba diving were shown together with a short film on Bubbleblaster club dives taken by Krohn. The fall course, designed to qualify divers as scuba divers, will be conducted from 1 to 5 p.m. each Sunday for the following eight weeks.

Lecture sessions will be held at the outset of each lesson, and the class will then reconvene in the "Y" swimming pool for the water work portion of the course. Cost of the course, $38 to non-YMCA members, and $30 to YMCA members, may be divided into a series of weekly payments.

New students will be accepted at next week's first lesson session, with persons interested invited to be present at the YMCA at 1 p.m. Sunday. Students should provide swim suits and towels. Underwater diving apparatus and a scuba diving manual are provided each student for use.

Louis Brown and Richard Griffin will act as coordinators for the entire program, with weekly instruction to be handled by members of the Bubbleblasters club.

3,971,979 Crossings In Year 4% Gain In McKinley Bridge Traffic Despite Remodeling

Traffic over the Venice-owned McKinley Bridge climbed to a record 3,971,979 during the 1959-60 fiscal year ending Sept. 30, despite the inconvenience resulting from extensive remodeling work still underway.

A 5% drop in traffic had been predicted during the strengthening and paving project, but instead the number of vehicular crossings increased 4% over the first year of city operation of the Mississippi River span. The numerical difference between the two fiscal years is even greater, but the 3,278,215 tabulation for 1958-59 included only 10 months and 10 days, since the city completed its purchase from the Illinois Terminal Railroad on Nov. 21, 1958.

1948 First 3,000,000 Year
Built in 1910, the Venice-to-St. Louis structure had traffic of slightly over 1,500,000 by 1936, surpassed 2,000,000 in 1941 and topped 3,000,000 for the first time in 1948.

Crossings totaled 3,117,400 in 1954, 3,433,316 the following year, 3,713,863 in 1956 and 3,928,626 in 1957, ITR records show.

Mayor John E. Lee has announced that at least 4,000,000 crossings are needed during the October 1960-September 1961 year, since bond issue payments are higher beginning with the third year. Completion of the remodeling late this fall is expected to aid in attracting more traffic.

Since the city acquired the bridge, the best month has been May 1960, when there were 350,359 vehicles and a daily average of 11,692.

Remodeling work completed on the main part of the bridge totaled $337,492 through Sept. 30. With $209,995 previously paid, $33,747 was paid to the Whiting-Turner Co. of Baltimore this month. This leaves $33,747 or 10% for later payment.

General Contracting Co. of Granite City, contractor for improvement of the approaches and for construction of a toll plaza on Main street, Venice, has been paid $149,204 of the $163,693 completed so far, including $58,913 this month.

Payments approved for September work include $510 to the Pittsburgh Testing Laboratory for testing $4110 to the Hardesty and Hanover Engineers for engineering services, $1223 to City Attorney Harry E. Hartman for legal services and $11,023 to General Contracting for Broadway resurfacing.

K. Of C. Will Hear Mental Health Speaker
Plans to enter a team in a bowling tournament next month in Wood River and the securing of a speaker on mental health problems occupied members of the third degree, Knights of Columbus Council 1098, at a meeting Thursday night in the council home.

Arrangements are also being made for a memorial mass to be held on Armistice Day for all deceased members of the Catholic laymen's order.

The membership heard a report on closing ceremonies at a Novena held in French Village last week, attended by five fourth degree members of Council 1098. Bishop Albert Zuro-weste of Belleville led the closing meditations. Following the business meeting Thursday, refreshments were served to 30 members.

Net $3195 From School Short-Term Investments

Taxes collected this summer have been invested in the amount of $124,000 following retirement of tax anticipation warrants and allowance for immediate obligations. Granite City School Supt. Harold M. Kaiser has reported. Interest will amount to $3195 on the short-term treasury bills.

Dr. Kaiser said the procedure is being followed as a policy of the board of education and administration, with the full cooperation of Township School Treasurer Henry Laeders. All idle tax funds, particularly construction fund balances, are invested for as long a period as is feasible, within the limits of expected financial needs, he explained.

The educational fund is receiving $2068 from treasury bills totaling $20,000 and maturing on Sept. 29, $180,000 on Oct. 13, $100,000 on Oct. 27, $200,000 on Nov. 3 and $250,000 on Nov. 17. The building fund will receive $376 from a $100,000 purchase maturing Oct. 27, and the bond and interest fund will net $750 from a bill for $250,000 maturing Nov. 17.

Acknowledging the announcement, School Board President Homer Huber commended the administrative staff in particular Dr. Kaiser and Administrative Assistant for Business Victor Anderson. He said this and other financial practices are relatively new to the school district, and justify the board's decision to expand the business office. He added that the extra cost has been far exceeded by the savings.

Fines Total $65 On Three Traffic Charges.
Fines totaling $65 were levied Thursday against Henry Voss, 50, of 3916 Lake drive, who was arrested at East 23rd street and State Route 182 by state troopers. He was booked at Granite City police headquarters and pleaded guilty to three charges during a hearing before Police Magistrate Gasparovic.

The fines amounted to $50 for illegal transportation of liquor, $10 for no driver's license and $5 for drunkenness.

only your local stores give instant delivery and service . . .

We don't believe you gain anything at all by driving long distances to shop at BIG CITY stores. Our local sources have merchandise that's just as good and costs no more.

But merely for the sake of argument, suppose you do save a few dollars on a time-consuming trip many miles from home. And suppose you don't even count the cost of gasoline and oil, car wear, parking fees, etc. Forget, too, if you like, the hazards of driving in today's heavy highway and city traffic.

But don't overlook these things: What you buy here can be in your home in a few minutes—no waiting several days for delivery. And if the merchandise doesn't give full satisfaction, any needed service or adjustment of the purchase can be made without shipping the items back to the BIG CITY or being forced to make a second trip yourself.

Why drive scores of miles looking for trouble? Shop right around the corner and be safe and satisfied.

HERE'S HOW YOU BENEFIT BY DOING ALL YOUR SHOPPING LOCALLY

When you buy from your hometown merchants you get:

1. HONEST VALUES
2. AMPLE SELECTION
3. INSTANT DELIVERY, SERVICE AND ADJUSTMENT
4. MORE PERSONAL AND FRIENDLIER TREATMENT
5. SAVING OF TIME

IF 1960 CORN OUTPUT determined a state's size, Illinois would be the nation's second largest, according to researchers of Cargill Hybrids, seed firm which compiled this map to illustrate state-by-state production of this year's estimated 4.18-billion bushel crop. Using the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Sept. 9 forecast, Cargill re-drew the national map, giving each state the area proportional to its corn production. Illinois farmers will harvest more than 652 million bushels—15.6% of the U.S. total corn crop—and will receive nearly $685 million in payment, the seedmen predict.
